

Preparing the ground and setting the principles for the Parliament to the oversight the actions of the government actions

Achievements of the State Ministry for the Parliamentary affairs in first six months of 1398 year

Third Achievement:

In the democratic form of the government, the sovereignty of the state belongs to the people, and it's one of the fundamental principles of Afghanistan government too. In Articles (1) and (3) of the Constitution of Afghanistan, the government officials are accountable to the nation.

Therefore, according to the law, the executive branch members are entitled to give reports and answer to the Legislative Branch of the government about their work. Because, according to the constitution, parliamentary oversight on the actions of the government is one of the main functions of the Legislative branch (National Assembly).

Therefore, the State Ministry for Parliamentary Affairs, in the first six months of the current Fiscal Year, has organized approximately 701 events of the senior government officials for realizing the man principle of the Parliamentary Oversight. In these various sessions, the government officials gave answers to the National Assembly questions about their work. And, it is considered a big achievement for the State Ministry of the Parliamentary affairs to paving the way for the Parliament to hold the government officials accountable for their actions.
